

Two Worlds in development

When walking on the street, it looks like the 'usual' life from before the corona lockdown has returned. A single Asian with mouth mask left out of this. The terrasses are full again, more jolly people and a looser conduct as before. The media report as if normal life has returned, with the emphasis on the corona QR-code on your handy. But when you look past the external news, there outline ever clearer two worlds.

-The one world is of the adapted citizens that have themselves told that it is good for each other, and for the own freedom, to have you be vaxed. This freedom, like visit to restaurants and culture events, as well as the possibility to travel, you get after having the QR-code on your mobile telephone with a green slash. The 'freedom' according to the politicians is taht you can also have yourself tested with a PCR test. Many employees demand regular tests and more often vaccination.

-The other world is the one of people who for whatever reason so not want to be robbed of their individual freedoms, and that turn themselves away from 'apartheid'. Also amongst many already vaxed people there grows the notion of this theft of freedom. And this is being amplified amongst parents that with growing astonishment see how their children are being threatened to be vaccinated. When looking outside of the Netherlands, you see the growth of the resistance against the corona pass and compulsive vaccinations for different professions. The number people that resign and start protesting because of the mandates, grow as well. Also in the Netherlands the protests augment. And there arises an almost parallel society in which the freedoms amongst each other are being respected. In our country this is being organized by 'Choice Free with Me' amongst others.

At first sight the issue here is civil freedoms that get suppressed. But when you search deeper, past the usual media, many things come up that appear not to suit the course of events as this is being told to us. For this you can visit alternative media. Also the video's of Janet Ossebaard are quite informative.¹ Here you enter the field of conspiracy theories. And when looking further, you come to a whole scala of information and as well much desinformation. With little bits this now also comes up in the mainstream media, but much more so in the alternative media. Underneath I give you some facts, with which you can trace for yourself how far you can feel into these and check these out as well:

-There has never been a corona pandemic. The definition of it has been adapted just before the start of the corona wave, and right from the start the numbers have been blown up and altered. In 2020 nobody died from influenza, and hardly anyone from heart and lung diseases. The real mortality numbers worldwide are about the same as the amount of deaths from the yearly influenza epidemics. And not from real pandemics, like ebola.

-Without vaccination you will have a chance of 99,98 % to not catch the virus. And these 0,02 % is attained for 60 % by elders above 80, the remaining 40 % by people that have already been weakened by another illness. Children and adolescents have 0,0 % chance to catch the virus, simply because they have a strong immune system from the base. The argument that the measures are meant to protect the weak, so predominantly elderly people, is not at stake for a long time.

-The name Covid-19 is an abbreviation of Certificate of Valid ID; in short, from the start it all was about the digital identity, now in the shape of the QR-code and the personal data that can be connected to this, just like in China, and recently also in England. The patent for the virus has already been asked for in 2002 (which is only possible with a synthesised, so fabricated organism, for a natural organism cannot be patented). In 2003 there has been requested a patent for the vaccin against the virus.²

-The virus itself has not yet been isolated by any scientist. Which indicates we have to deal with a kind of phantom here.³

-There is hard evidence that Bill Gates, George Soros and Dr. Fauci are owners of the Wuhan labors in which the so-called coronavirus has been fabricated, in assault of them. We deal here with a so-called 'gain of function' experiments by mixing animal DNA in the virus and have this multiplied as well within humans. Of Dr. Fauci there have been released recently videos in which in 2019, just after the breakout in

² Dr Martin Ward, head of the British Health Council and the international bureau of patents, has clearly indicated this.

China, he discusses with co-workers that this virus is an ideal means to get control over the people, and also though vaccination bring down population density. This is one of the goals of the New World Order, which is being furthered by the World Economic Forum (see their website, there you will find things that will startle you). Note: our government takes part in the meetings of the WEF, with Rutte and Kaag amongst others.

-The corona vaccinations are experimental, and only granted for the recent emergency situation as has been posed. According to EMA, the European health organization, until the 20th of October. The issue is a new technique, with which cell kernels and mitochondria (energy producers in the cell) are being enriched with mRNA (messenger-RNA) which alters the DNA (hereditary material on our chromosomes) in such a way, that the cells are being incited to produce the so-called 'spike' protein that inhibits the protein coat of the penetrating virus, so that it cannot reproduce itself. Besides this, the own human immune apparatus is being hemmed and ultimately stopped.⁴ With as a result that all kinds of infections of bacteria, fungi and viruses are no longer dealt with and so the vaccinated people are a breeding chamber for those infections. Also when the virus mutates, and as vaccinated person you are nonweaponized against the new varieties, and needs to receive following-up injections. Ever more cashing for the Big Pharma boys, who already have become very rich from the vaccinations so far. Follow the money and you will see.

-About that, the PCR test appears to be not clear at all: it tests protein cloaks of different viruses, such as the influenza virus a and b, both being varieties of the family of the coronaviruses (between which we live already thousands of years). Hence that we get more positive tests, for the influenza season is arriving.

-It appears that the components of the vaccine contain quite suspicious substances, such as graphene oxide a superconductor and amplifier of electromagnetic radiation; embryo cells (from where do these come?), aluminum-bromine-carbon parasites,⁵ besides a list of metals and other components that have little to do with healing.⁶

⁴ Recent research indicates that this goes with 5 % per month.

⁵ See the research of biologist and geologist of dr. Franc Zalewsky.

⁶ See for the list of components:

<https://beforeitsnews.com/health/2021/09/covid-19-vaccine-ingredients-3041928.html>

-Because the vaccine is an experiment, you are not insured. You lose your individual rights as a human and will be treated as a bio-robot, being at the disposal of the company that gave you the jab, and also being conducted by them. So you give up your human existence and become subject to the company.

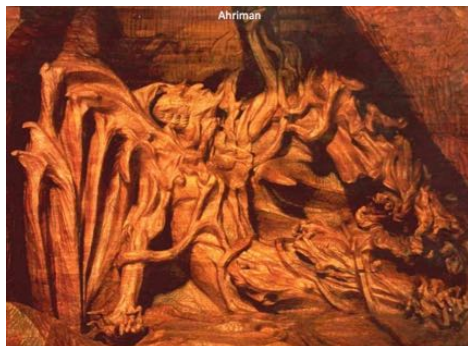

-There appear to be more vaxed people being contaminated with the coronavirus than non-vaxed. Also are there more complications and mortalities of vaxed frightening high. These numbers are neglected by the media. Together with politicians the lies are being spread that the rise in contaminations is caused by unvaxed persons. The numbers show that the opposite is the case.

-The experience of different esoteric investigators, myself included, is that by the vaccinations the soul and the spirit are being expelled, and that these people become a robot that is receptive for the tasks that they can receive through electromagnetic (5G) radiation. You can experience this with many (not all!) vaxed persons that they radiate a kind of desinterest, specifically where it has to do with inner turbulences.

This has already been predicted for hundred years by Rudolf Steiner: that there will come a vaccination that makes the people forget the spirit. So here outlines a world of mere matter, conducted with the help of electromagnetic waves (sublittoral nature), as has been inspired by ahriman/satan.

You can wonder with this hoi wit is that so many people have them be lied to so simple. An important archetypal image with this for man of the West we find back in our 'roots', in Germanic society from which arose the present one. The legacy of it we find in the Nordic 'Edda', the anthology of myths and legends about our foretime. In it you find an important song, Voluspa, in which is described the fall Germanic gods by the counterforces. The main god Odin/Wodan, who brought us our scripture, is killed by the grey Fenriswolf, an animal that gnaws at the Sun. If you deepen yourself into these images, you come to the written word (then the runes, now the alphabet). And the Sun at which gnaws the Fenriswolf stands for our inner Sun, the heart, in which dwell the feeling for truth and the conscience: our heart is being darkened by untruth, falsehood. And this is what our main media do: twisting of reality, silencing of facts and falsehood. Through this the true word is being killed.

About that, the song Voluspa also has a promise for our time. Being that the silent god Widar will kill the Fenriswolf. And so bring back the truth. I strongly have the impression that the ones that wake up to this manipulation and showing it to the world, do this now by starting court cases against governments and health organizations.

Another important archetypal image rises up here as well, namely the division into two of mankind. Over hundred years ago Rudolf Steiner has pointed to this: a part of mankind will choose for the development into matter, with which it will ultimately become slave of the counterforce satan/Ahriman, who causes lust in power by greed, who wants man to forget his spiritual-Cosmic origin and bind him in and at matter. Another counter-striving power, Lucifer/the devil, helps man develop egotism, to be directed on and to himself. And just these two forces or beings you encounter with the ones that make themselves strong for the rules of governments, simply because that suits them.

The other group of people, that searches the connection, more or less has the notion that we are more than mere matter and walk around upon the Earth for a reason; at the least by being able to develop further on it. Which in the end means: in soul and spirit, all through the earthly and the own physical body.

So far about the coronavirus. The list is far from complete but outlines the tendency that it shows: manipulation with a purpose, being by provoking fear to the people force them to take the jab. You can speak here of pre-proposed aims, so conspiracies, in the true sense.

About that, many counter movements come up against these compulsory mandates and the robbery of civilian freedoms, through court cases against governments and health organizations.

Who manipulates?

It is peculiar that almost all predominant western oriented governments have gone along with the measures, like the lockdowns and corona passports. You can speak here as well of a central conducted manipulation. Government leaders that posed questions with the pandemic, like the Tanzanian president, have silently disappeared from the stage. But: who manipulates?

In different alternative media you can read that a large group of world leaders and their military, called the 'Earth Alliance', is busy to resist and throw over the elite, under the name of 'deep state', or also 'illuminati'. Under these you have to think of the thirteen so-called bloodline families and their executives, the Rothschilds (bankers) and Rockefellers (Big Tech and Big Pharma). The alliance has been started by the leaders of the US, Russia, India, Iraq, South Africa, and in the meantime 179 other countries have joined them. It is supposed to be lead by the previous president of the US, Donald Trump, with his top generals. This is because the country is the watchdog of the world and has the most powerful military (or according to some sources: had). And considering that with the last, heavily fraudulent elections he got 80 % of the votes, the army should stand behind him and still consider him as the regular president. In the alternative media is being expected that he will put aside the shadow government of Biden and Harris and will return as the savior. In the same moment the law GESARA (Global Economic and Security and Reformation Act) should start to work, that will give the citizens of the Earth give back their basic and ground rights, initiate new and fair election, a new monetary system that is based on gold and assets that would make disappear all the state debt and in which for every citizen of the world there will be a basic income. Also there would come until now kept secret technologies, like those of the genius Nikola Tesla, will give us clean and free energy and that will make school medicine, based on chemical medicines, make superfluous.

At first there would come chaos and order, then the army would intervene worldwide and give us back our rights.

This scenario has been kept up before us for at least 20 years, like a sausage at which you just cannot reach because it is advanced a little bit each time. And indeed, the GESARA law has been signed in 2000 by the president at that time with the gun on his head and has been enforced by congress. But when it should be implemented further, on 11 September 2001 in building 7 of the World Trade Center in New York, 2 holograms of airplanes flew into the Twin Towers van het WTC, which collapsed, and there started a fire on the 6th floor of building 7 of the WTC, where just this law was signed by the indigenous Indian leaders and the farmers, after which the entire building collapsed without an external cause. After this, the 'war on terror', started, but in this way GESARA was put back in the fridge.

So for many people the hope is now directed to the Earth Alliance and Trump. But even though the fraudulent election in the US is already a year ago, nothing happens until now. Despite all the promises. What is going on here? Is this about rivalling fractions? Or a delay? Meanwhile the threat of war augments worldwide, and as well, despite of the protest, the governmental measures of regulation and control augment as well. The intended stock market breakdown is not there either. And I got my doubts about Trump, still during his public rile, about that he embraced the vaccinations, even though he himself chose another alternative medicine.

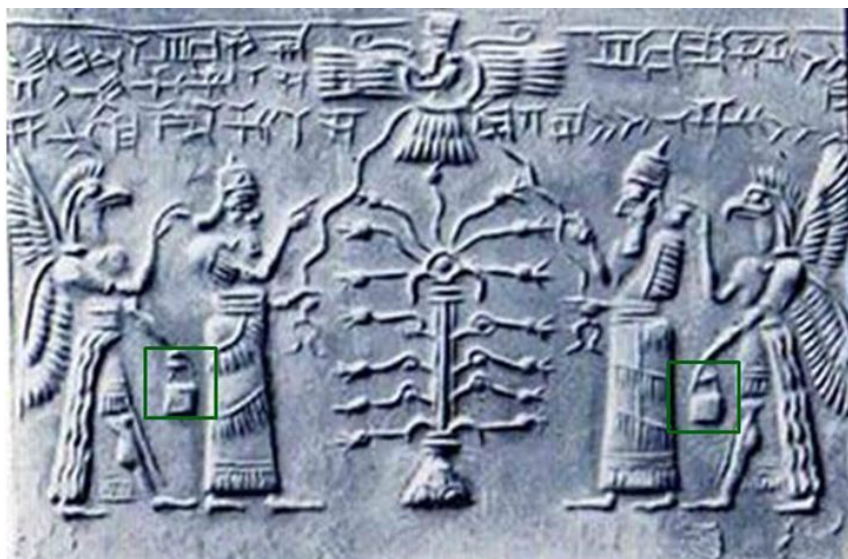

An answer may have Kim Goguen.

About Kimberly Anne Goguen, or also Kim 'Possible':

According to her own words and those of the people around her, this women has the clearest human DNA and hence has been chosen to be an ambassador for man and the Earth at the Universal World council (whatever this may contain) and she has received the keys of a trust in which are all the artefacts of value (like precious metals and other goods of value) and also all the money of the Earth to be managed by her. She has been found in this by the CIA program 'Looking Glass' in which the DNA of each human that they get access to is being monitored, and that with the help of a supercomputer puts out timelines to the future and wants to conduct it. Kim negotiates with world leaders of the Earth about the transmission of money that is backed up by value assets (like gold), that needs to be spent to the states and to the separate people. She talks about power structures that are being conducted for 16.700 years by extraterrestrial reptile people, the draconians, who have been taken in by a human primal tribe during a war, and in deliberation have put upon the Earth and its inhabitants martial law, in exchange for the victory of that tribe. These draconians, also being known as the annunaki,⁷ have turned mankind into slaves and milked out the Earth and men. This treaty should have been ended in 2012, at the 21st of December (yes, the transformation according to the Inca's) and being replaced by a peace treaty. Meanwhile the leaders of these draconian people still present on the Earth have been killed because they did not act in accordance to this the peace treaty, but they have left behind an entire power structure of which we only know the lower echelons, which we indicate as the cabal or elite. These have lost their trace and leadership and now fight one another for conquering man. This is what we now look at, in the vaccination mandates or obligations and corona-passports. However the Earth has entered a more positive current within the Milky Way and is transcending into a higher vibration, which causes a higher vibration, also for her inhabitants, like us humans. And these power structures, based on greed, power (ahriman/satan) and desire (lucifer/devil) do not get along in this but try to keep hold of mankind and the Earth at all costs.

Mesopotamian relief of the 4 annunaki, in their human and drake statures.

Added to this comes that two power groups that have cooperated for a long time, started quarreling and conquer one another ever since. At the one side there is the group of the Sanhedrin council (the khazarian Jews, together with the yellow dragon families), at the other side those that worship the black sun. And according to Kim the Earth Alliance including Trump belong to this latter group.⁸ Trump with his generals has had the opportunity to add the Federal Reserve to the American treasury, through which tax money would flow back to the American people through the banks. But Trump and generals have tried to buy the Fed themselves to be able to execute power through it. After Kim's words, she and her group have prevented this because she has the access codes of the trust that manages this money amongst others.⁹ With as a result that they neither have access to the money that flows around the world. Also the clairvoyant Jacqueline Hobbs indicates that the present-day fight on the world stage is only about the power behind the screens.¹⁰ According to Kim, Putin as well as Trump belong to the order of the black sun, and Trump with his generals via the 'Secret Star Program' now conducts Biden and let him take the disastrous decisions that you notice now. In short, Trump is as much a pion of the deep state. It is a little hopeful insight, that we are only looking at a fake show.

Kim is being protected by the 'Universal Council' through its executive power, that also supervises the execution of the present peace treaty. These executors also are working at that the energetic grid around the Earth, with which the draconians and their helpers the mantids (locusts) and the greys kept mankind imprisoned and harvested our souls where possible, now is being destroyed so that the Earth can function again in her own energetic patterns and life body, and we humans can easier find our way back to our own star. Kim wants to achieve that the power structures on the Earth are being broken and the power, and therewith as well the money, is given back to the people. And to this, she is negotiating with most governments and power instances. With as a means of pressure that they will only receive money via her when this will really benefit the people. Like via a basic income.

¹⁰ See her website Oraclegirl.com.

As I look at all this, we have to deal here with a fight against the counterforces on the earthly-material level, where there is little to no knowledge about the real esoteric realities of our development. Kim talks about etheric grids, but you don't hear her speaking about the worlds of the soul and the spirit. The battle that she describes however, has strong connections to the world in which also the spiritual developing people in the present and near future live. And it appears to be similar to what we have encountered with our projects of landscape healing as workings of the counter angels out of the sublittoral spheres. Hence I want to try to see Kim's observations and vision through the workings out of these subterranean spheres.

Kim's vision on the power structure upon the Earth in relation to the subterranean spheres¹¹

According to Kim, out of her encounters with the annunaki and other members, the hierarchic power structure since the draconians took power, sees out as follows:¹²

-The top, an annunaki, until 2012 was determined by general Anu, who was placed there by his race and as well by the Universal Council, that saw upon how the treaty of martial art was executed. He and his draco race as being good military were invited to this by the abraxias, humanoids that have the ether technology, and mantids (locusta) that have the artificial intelligence to this.

-He had his sons Enki and Enlil take control of the Earth, which amongst others meant cultivating humans that became slaves for their purpose, being to milk out the Earth and its inhabitants and ultimately destroy it. Which fortunately did not happen.¹³

-His grandson Marduk was placed as the ruler over the Earth, with all kinds of honoring of him as a god (Baäl and other names; also Yahweh, at least, this is what he wanted us to believe). He is considered as the dark overlord, destroyer, who we know as satan or Ahriman (or rather he took down this dark overlord from a parallel but negative universe, this is not completely clear to me, to be able to well ground his power here). He and his predecessors are multi-dimensional, and they come from a parallel universe. We know this destroyer or splitter as the fallen cherubin that has grounded the 8th subterranean sphere. According to Kim, he grabs his power over mankind and the Earth through making Metatron's cube, which is an etherical grid around the Earth that keeps us in its grip. This etheric cube is an AI-program. It fortunately has been dismantled recently, which is why we can get contact again with the higher spiritual worlds and our own star.¹⁴

-Under the dark lord, his executives, are the black magicians and their helpers, the demons. They have/had control over the Earth, and what goes in and out of it. They are being indicated as the Earth's mirror that twists everything. It is a working out of the 7th sublittoral sphere, from which works the counter-throne lucifer/devil; he twists the truth, so that real contact is diminished. He works through the divide and rule policies that puts up everyone to one another.

-Underneath of this in the power structure are the Elders, probably of the 5 to 7 primal races or tribes, including the dark prince. These are original people of whom there has not been mingled with other races, and that have higher gifts and as well live a very long life.¹⁵ They ought to give orders and approve the ones they receive from higher up. With this, they also cause that the earth is closed off from other heavenly bodies and the living beings on these. This is a working out of the 6th subterranean sphere, the one of the counter-wisdom spirits or dominions; the flayer of the ire earth. The regular wisdom spirits connect the consciousness of the Earth with other heavenly bodies, which makes arise re-ligare (means re-connecting) in the true sense of the word.

-The group of the black prince celebrates a cult of the black sun. You can think with these of the 4th subterranean sphere, the one of the form

¹⁴ The strange thing tot his is that during our healing landscape work we have never met this grid as such. We did meet blockages on sensitive landscape points, but these were most often local and brought about by humans. .

¹⁵ This is because they use more of their DNA: we only use about 10% of it.

earth, in which all qualities are being projected to the outside and there just remain empty shells: only usefulness and no sense. Think of the ugly office buildings with reflecting darkened glass. The sense lies in the spirit that develops inside an earthly-physical body. And the cultus of the black sun celebrates death in order to come to development (like the Indian dancing Shiva). Because the Rothschilds also belong to the black sun cult, you can think of these, the bankers, as stemming from the 5th sublittoral sphere, the one of the fruit earth, which generates the nutrition and forces for the 4th sphere. In the 5th sublittoral sphere live the counter-moving spirits or counterpowers, who bring forth unlimited libido, like the forces of the mushroom you see with nuclear explosions. The banking being arises from this sphere: there is created money out of nothing, and you pay rent when borrowing it.

-Under the Elders you find the Covens, the secret orders. These work with secret rituals and right through their secrecy they arouse fear for randomness. This is a working out of the 3th subterranean sphere, the one of the air earth. In this sphere belong as well the demons and asuras.

-Underneath the Covens you 'll find the dragon families, that we know as the 13 bloodline families.¹⁶ They contain many noble families and ever more industry managers, who direct large groups of the population. It is a reflection of the 2nd sublittoral sphere, the fluid earth, from where the counter-archangels conduct companies and organizations. Think here as well of Big Tech and media and their manipulations of our minds. To the dragon families also belong the Chinese 'elders', descendants of the emperor dynasties, that dig, steal and control the gold for thousands of years. Until 2018 they cooperated with the members of the black sun cult, because they did guard the Ark of the Alliance and build together the third Salomonic temple, with the help of the demons. I suspect that there are also mentioned the archons here. These arise from the 3rd sublittoral sphere.

-Underneath of these you find the jesuits, that are a more military order and are being conducted by the gray and black popes, the Vatican. They infiltrated every government and large company. Together with the secret freemason lodge Skull & Bones.¹⁷ These founded and conducted the three-letter agencies, secret services and most of the international organizations, such as the UN, BIS, Fed and therewith the central national banks, IMF, WB. These organizations do the fieldwork, the dirty work, and this is an effect of the 1st subterranean sphere, where dwell the fallen angels, working in and out of the layer of solid earth. These latter groups choose the leaders of governments and let these be ‘elected’ so that it seems like free elected governments.

The only one missing in this ranking is the 9th sublittoral sphere. The Earth’s kernel in which is imprisoned a dragon in pure hate. He however is being tamed by Mother Earth in the stature of Isis Sophia. He is an elaboration of the antichrist, who wants to split our ego, our spirit germ, so that his creatures the asura’s, fire demons, can dwell in the spirit splinters and through their incarnations can free him. I suspect that you can compare to him Enlil, who only considered the Earth as a milk cow and man as a diminutive being, whom he treated cruel at will. He has been killed recently.

The healing world, re-ligare

Nowhere in Kim’s explanations you will meet references of the angel orders from high to low that have created the world and the Earth, and their helpers, the elemental beings. You can call these the healing, living side of the world: that to which man with the heart in the right place wants to develop to, back to the spirit from where we came, all through healing and transforming Mother Earth and her creatures and layers.

In a narrower sense you here have the present world of those that do not want to be vaccinated, if they can avoid it, and that go for equality and healing of each other and the Earth. Without them needing to be conscious of this. Our heart namely has three basic functions,

cohering with the nerve odes. The upper nerve node gives us the feeling for truth, the lowest one the desire to do the good which is founded in our will and everything that plays through it, being our ideals we take along from before our birth from the starry sky. And the nerve node in the middle gives us our conscience, which gives us the ability to weigh what as an interaction arises in us from the outside and from the inside. The heart in which dwells our ego, our spirit germ. And if you want to get in contact with these creative beings, you need to develop your higher soul senses that are situated on your chakras. The subterranean spheres with their fallen angels and demons have a reflection above the Earth in the nine planet- end starry spheres in which from low to high dwell the creative angel orders (see the image down below). And you can reach them through the creatures they have created as their thoughts: these are the elemental beings from low to high. By working with these beings with and on the Earth, we restore the true spiritual connection and transform the earth all through us. And this is what people with a good heart are doing more or less conscious, each individual in his or her unique way. And as well through this we open great creative faculties in ourselves. With as a base that we can imagine ourselves each reality wished for, which make us create our own timeline. We are powerful creative beings, angels in becoming, being spirits of freedom and love, which means we can develop freedom out of the force of compassion through which with deeds of love we can transform the Earth and ourselves by making spaces of love.¹⁸ And you can reinforce this field from what you see as an image of the future by cooperating with more people. This is one of the reasons why we are forming 'the Fjodor Community'¹⁹
